Computing Similarity Dimension

Mark POLLCOTT
Warwick University and IHES

Abstract

Following Falconer and Hueter-Lalley we can associate to a finite number of affine contractions a formula for the singularity dimension of the limit set, which is typically equal to the Hausdorff Dimension. We want to consider the practical problem of how efficiently one can estimate this value.